Did Somebody Say Flexible? YES!

Choose your state-of-the-art radios from genuine Motorola products and technologies, programmed to your system's requirements, shipped right to your doorstep, for as long as you need.

Affordable

You can rent your equipment by the day, week or month, so you only pay for what you need... at very competitive rates. And because you're renting from Event Radio Rentals, you can be assured you're getting the best in quality and performance.

Who Rents?

Renting communication equipment can be an invaluable option for all types of organizations. With staffing levels being forced down and productivity being pushed up, you are looking for ways to do more with less. What organizations like yours are finding is the same radio system that helps maximize productivity also can be utilized to increase customer satisfaction. We also know you cannot afford to have equipment sitting around during downtime. So we offer a Radio Rental program that is ready to fulfill the needs of organizations like not for profit, corporate business, public safety, petrochemical, telephone, transportation, manufacturing or utility.

Whether it's short or long-term, on-site or wide area, count on Event Radio Rentals for fast, flexible and reliable communications that won't break your budget.

Why Rent?

Reliable and dependable communications are an important tool to help you run your operation more smoothly and safely. Whether you need just a few radios for a long period of time, or a large number of units for just a few days, we're set up to respond.

For...

- Planned maintenance, construction and short term projects
- Emergency response actions or disaster relief
- Flexibility when a long term commitment isn't desired
- Staying within budget when capital expenditures aren't possible
- An interim solution during a technology migration
- Temporary or sudden spikes in activity

In these cases and a multitude of others, we have the cost-effective expertise and capability to design the perfect rental solution for you. The whole process takes only a few minutes. Event Radio Rentals puts the radios and the experts you need right at your fingertips.

Peace of Mind

We rent genuine Motorola products for the utmost in quality and reliability. Fast and convenient ordering and delivery processes mean that, in most cases, your radios can be on their way to their destination the same day. We provide return shipping labels and reusable shipping cartons for your convenience. You can rent your equipment by the day, week or month, so you only pay for what you need. And you'll find our rates to be very competitive.
